

NEW ZEALAND MAJOR EVENTS

Legal disclaimer

By viewing or using this website, you agree to this disclaimer.

The information and content provided on or through this website (the information) includes information provided by the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment (the Ministry) and by third parties. The information is intended to provide general background information to persons involved in organising major events in New Zealand (the purpose) and must be used only for the purpose.

The Ministry does not warrant or represent (expressly or by implication) that the information is current, accurate or complete or that the information and its use will not infringe any third party's rights. The Ministry excludes all liability and/or responsibility to you or any other person in contract, tort (including negligence), equity or otherwise for any loss or damage directly or indirectly resulting from the use of, or reliance on, any of the information, including (without limit) resulting from any error, inadequacy, deficiency, flaw in or omission from the information.

You should take advice from qualified professional people before using, or undertaking any action on the basis of, any of the information, including obtaining legal advice on any agreement or similar document available on or through this website. The information is not intended to be a substitute for professional advice on a particular course of action.

The Ministry is not responsible for the content of the other websites linked to or reference in this website. The inclusion of any link or reference to another website, or reference to any product, process, service or person, is not an endorsement, verification or recommendation by this website or the Ministry.

References in the disclaimer to the Ministry include references to the Crown of New Zealand and the Ministry's employees, officers and agents.
