

Volunteering at FIFA U-20 World Cup New Zealand 2015

On: 14 October 2014

The FIFA U-20 World Cup New Zealand 2015 (FIFA U-20) is FIFA's second largest tournament and will be held in New Zealand between 30 May and 20 June 2015. 1,500 volunteers will be required to fill roles from promotions and spectator services to protocol and ticketing as well as team support roles.

Volunteers are the backbone of any event. It is a great way to learn new skills, meet like-minded people, give back to your community and have a great time in a new environment. Volunteers are more often than not referred to as the "Face of the Event".

The FIFA U-20 World Cup New Zealand 2015 (FIFA U-20) is FIFA's second largest tournament and will be held in New Zealand between 30 May and 20 June 2015. 24 teams will play 52 games over seven venues throughout New Zealand. 1,500 volunteers will be required to fill roles from promotions and spectator services to protocol and ticketing as well as team support roles.

FIFA U-20 is a unique opportunity for individuals across New Zealand to be part of a spectacular sporting event.

If you would like to become a great ambassador for New Zealand and enjoy a truly unique event experience, FIFA U-20 is now recruiting for volunteers.

Registrations close 17 October 2014

Read more about FIFA U-20 Volunteering